10+ Bonus Stories Included**

Charity Williams has long been a tom boy, more interested in spending time with her brother and riding horses, than any of the feminine arts that her mother tries to push her towards. Her father is indulgent, but unwilling to oppose her mother in regards to Charity's future. Her mother has chosen Edmund Daniels to be her daughter's husband. All that is left to do is for the families to gather to ensure the match is suitable to all.

Charity is opposed, and decides to embrace the opportunity to show him that she is not a fit bride for him. What she did not plan for was his younger brother Augustus. The two share a free spirit and a passion for life that bonds them instantly and soon, they are very much in love. Find out what scandals ensue in this sweet historical romantic comedy!
