Finders Keepers: A Novel by Stephen King | Summary & Analysis

This is a Summary & Analysis. Stephen King offers a gripping tale of a robbery and murder and what happens after. Along with a buried-treasure-found plot, it presents a metanarrative commentary on how to read well that can be a useful guide for King's large audience, both lay and scholarly. It offers much to all of its readers, making it a valuable piece and an example of why King is one of the masters of contemporary fiction.

The novel follows the fate of the fortune and unpublished works of John Rothstein, an eminent and reclusive author. He is killed in the late 1970s by Morris Bellamy, his works and money buried only to be recovered decades later by Pete Saubers, a teenager in unfortunate circumstances who uses what he finds to improve his family's lot in life.

- And Much More!
