The USERRA Manual: Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights, 2010 ed. Edward Still

This title provides practical background and practice information for attorneys assisting military personnel returning from active duty with employment-related issues. The Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act of 1994 (USERRA) sets forth a detailed regulatory scheme of leave rights and mechanisms for enforcement of those rights. This title is a must-have for employment practitioners as a large number of Reserve and National Guard personnel will be returning from active duty within the next one to five years.
