DISASTROUS ENCOUNTER KERRY ALLYNE

There was a virile quality about him that excited her, even on that first night when her passion tended to overcome her good sense and the electrifying sensations he was arousing were all combining to defeat her. But that was then and she was still to discover who this man was, this Ronan King; was he a stranger or was he family?

Kerry Allyne was a romantic and a romance writer. She travelled many thousands of miles throughout Australia and was familiar with the backgrounds that appear in each of her novels drawing on many of her own experiences to provide a real feel for the Australian Outback.
