Splintered Existence H. R. Holt

Midland opens itself onto the world of humans, bringing with it an unfathomable darkness that only few can stop. Jean Strummer, who considers herself "just a secretary", is about to find out that she plays a crucial part in closing the rift. Along the way, she meets Dalen Gering, the dark leader, whose heart is awakened by her mere presence; Aluna, the elfin princess and her sidekick, Caban; N'aul, an immortal god who lives among the Golden Stream; and Exadza, the dark queen and Dalen's mother, responsible for his fall to darkness. Jean must travel across this splintered existence - through the green-misted and sinister Saelbrage, past dragons that live within her and those around her - all to reach Bralae where the queen resides... and close the rift. But nothing is ever as easy as it seems...
