A simple error would change his life forever, but when he saw her, he felt like fate had given him his dream woman.

Archer McDonald wanted a baby, a rich CEO, he could have his pick of women but he didn't believe he'd ever find her. Feeling as though he's running out of options, he hires a surrogate, hoping no strings attached besides a legal contract. And the alpha billionaire has the finest lawyer money can buy.

A mix up at the lab leads to him to the woman of his dreams. If he could only convince her that they could be so much more than a simple science lab mistake.

Shareena Marcus came from a wealthy background, but lives within her means as a preschool teacher. After a string of bad relationships, she's against marriage and decides to go the single mom route.

Getting pregnant with the wrong sperm drastically alters her plans, especially when Archer sets out to seduce her. Billionaire's generally don't get to where they are by taking no for an answer.

Can he convince her that despite the odd start of their situation that the two of them would be perfect together? Or is Shareena set in her ways?
