Breast Cancer: Death Call or Enlightenment examines the important role fear plays in the initial decisions made when a woman is first confronted with a potential cancer diagnosis. The most intelligent and rational health care decision possible is one that is researched and planned in advance of the cancer diagnosis. Many women are not aware that they have choices of treatments other than breast mastectomy, radiation, and chemotherapy. As the author searched for an alternative cure for cancer, she learned that finding a cure was not the answer she needed-she needed to find healing. She found that healing involved identifying and treating her spiritual imbalances. It is the author's desire that by sharing her experiences, others will gain knowledge, courage, and determination to win their battle with cancer.
