The Full Stranded Trilogy!

My stepbrother has it all. He's smart, handsome, has a great body, and he's worth billions. He's every girl's dream and all our parents can rave about. After he bought our family a private island off the coast of Italy, it didn't seem like such a bad idea to get out of Texas and take a family vacation.

That good idea turned into a bad idea when we got aboard his private yacht and sailed into a hellacious ocean storm.

I'm thankful to be alive, but now we're stranded. Just the two of us. Alone on a deserted island. No food, no communication, no clothes, and we have no idea how to escape. As far as we know, no one knows where we are.

We have to learn how to survive and figure out how to get home, but the tension between us is growing each day. I can see the way that Alex looks at me with lustful eyes, and I can't help but steal glances of his rippling, tanned muscles when I have the chance. Something's got to give, and when it does, it's going to be harder, stronger, and faster than that epic storm that we survived.
