Secrets of the Millionaire Mind, " Always follow the Dream"

"Secrets of the Millionaire Mind" was originally written in 1997 as "Secrets of Success" by this brand and was published as a trade paper book "Secrets of the Millionaire Mind" in December of 2004. I was a best-selling author on this book, internationally and on radio within two weeks of publishing date. The title and much of the contents and concepts were infringed upon with no permission by another author who has since had no further written work published.

This is the first edition of my own original work. These e-books each have work shop questions at the end of each book, and these workshop questions as well as the group games for interaction that go with them, may be used to do workshops for your corporations. There are games, group measurement for results and group interactions with each book. I will also be publishing videos for active corporate participation to accompany all of these books in the near future. There are 60 books under this title currently in print in different languages under my brand with audio files that go with them, and soon to be video files also with my brand.

Transform your corporate profile into pure Excellence with these amazing books, through my secret step by step process of games, and create new meanings for the existence of your corporation, or small business by exploring how you may integrate your values, leadership, cohesion, integration, integrity and innovation, using my e-books, audios and films.

I am available for corporate key note talks and workshops in person. Here are some of my endorsements on these books. As the real author of "Secrets of the Millionaire Mind" I have continued my PHD studies with both Body talk and Access Consciousness and am currently working in private practice as a cranial sacral therapist in Dana Point, CA, 92629 serving families, CEO'S and corporations in these communities.
