"I think I'll have a glass of Riesling," Jennifer said quickly, setting the wine menu down. "What looks good to you?" She locked eyes with him and leaned over to hand him the menu.

It was getting harder to distinguish flirting from normal conversation when it came to Dan and Jennifer. Between the lunch last week and now this comment, I was unsure of what to make of everything.

Ashley and Jennifer, two friends and coworkers at a Miami architecture firm, share a secret - their flirting after the firm's Christmas party skirted a fine line when the pair decided to visit Ashley's community pool with her husband, Dan. This secret is haunting Dan and Ashley's relationship. They don't know what it means for their marriage. They don't know how they should feel about it. And when Dan confesses that Jennifer intrigues him, Ashley doesn't know whether what her husband feels is just a fleeting attraction or something more.

When their hot, wealthy boss invites the women and Dan to spend a weekend away at the exclusive luxury hotel the firm just finished working on, Ashley and Dan are excited to spend some time relaxing together and working on their marriage. But when Ashley divulges that she knows their boss is in an open marriage, the trio's secret comes out. And when Rick and his gorgeous wife confirm their arrangement, the loving couple and their friend find themselves pulled well past the line they had been dancing on.
