Some things you keep secret from everyone...

Having to move into a tent after the bank repossesses your family's house is definitely one of them.

Unfortunately, fifteen-year-old Kennedy is now faced with a choice. The City Council might tear down the tent city where she lives. Stepping forward to save her home could cost Kennedy her friends, her boyfriend Rico, and the Battelle Young Leaders program internship that she worked all year to attain.

Should she stand up for what is right...even if it means standing alone?

Special note for teachers! Teacher's Guides with discussion questions and activities are available from the publisher.
