Deception: Killing an American Dream is a tale of Boardroom deceit and how the greed and ambitions of a few insiders can destroy the American dream. Jack Barnes is a rising star among the executive ranks of Durham Technologies, and the protégé of the Chief Executive Officer, William Durham. Jack is focused on demonstrating his ability to ultimately assume the CEO position within the corporation. Unexpectedly his plans begin to unravel after receiving an urgent call from the Chief Financial Officer about a storm that is brewing among the Board of Directors. He finds himself thrown into a deceitful game of corporate chess against cloaked adversaries. The stakes are high and the outcome will determine the fate of the corporation. Will Jack identify the men behind the masks in time to save his career? Has he unwittingly become a pawn in their game? Can he alone prevent an American dream from being destroyed? As this story unfolds, careers are ruined, relationships damaged, and life is lost, while subplots are woven together to reveal the ultimate ... DECEPTION.
