THE HUNDRED DAYS A Jack Aubrey/Stephen Maturin Novel. Patrick. O'Brian

The Hundred Days by Patrick O'Brian, 19th in the Jack Aubrey/Stephen Maturin series, tells the story of Napoleon, after he's escaped from Elba, pursuing his enemies across Europe like a vengeful phoenix. If he can corner the British and Prussians before their Russian and Austrian allies arrive, his genius will lead the French armies to triumph at Waterloo. In the Balkans, preparing a thrust northwards into Central Europe to block the Russians and Austrians, a horde of Muslim mercenaries is gathering. They are inclined toward Napoleon because of his conversion to Islam during the Egyptian campaign, but they will not move without a shipment of gold ingots from Sheik Ibn Hazm which, according to British intelligence, is on its way via camel caravan to the coast of North Africa. The fate of Europe hinges on Jack Aubrey and Stephen Maturin intercepting this gold in a desperate mission. "The Hundred Days is certain to delight O'Brian's fans, for whom happiness is an unending stream of Aubrey/Maturin books....[It] is a fine novel that stands proudly on the shelf with the others." Los Angeles Times
